

Neville's life on show at event

On March 1 the Narrandera Show Society will be hosting what they believe will be the first of many successful events along the same theme.

The show fundraiser, "Is this your life?" is a tongue in cheek event aimed at thanking a local living legend for all their community involvement. The first event is a thank you to Neville Kschenka (right). "Neville Kschenka is this your life?" will be held at the Narrandera Ex-servicemen's club on Saturday March 1 at 7pm and will be centred around what the committee describes as a 'respectful roasting' for Neville.

The night will be filled with humorous anecdotes about Neville's life, his commitment to our shire and will include all the successes of Neville's life experiences and even some not so successful experiences.

"There were a few reasons we chose Neville to be the first subject for "Is this your life?" said Show Society president David Marwood.

"Firstly because he genuinely deserves a public acknowledgement for all the work he does for our community, but also because we knew he will be good spirited enough to allow us to make this night a lot of fun, at his expense, of course".

The event, which includes a two course meal, will feature speeches from Narrandera

Barbara Bryon and other community members, live music, a photo gallery and a very public roasting.

"We want to make the night a lot of fun for the guests which is why we called it "Is this your life?" said Mr Marwood. "It's a parody of the serious "This is your life" theme".

"Is this your life?" is a fundraiser for the local show and the committee has been working hard to keep the 100 year old institution alive and relevant in modern times.

"Our committee is particularly strong at the moment, thanks to new members coming on board so we now have the resources to branch out into other events.

"The more fundraisers we can coordinate the bigger and better our

Narrandera Show Society would love to hear from the community in regards to ideas about other people this event should be centred around.

"There are so many people that deserve to be awarded at a night like this so feedback from the community would be invaluable on helping us decide," Mr Marwood said.

Ideas can be sent to the NSS website through the 'contact us' link.

Tickets are $40 pp (including a two course meal) and are available now from Country Flair (6959 2718). More information can be found on the Show website www.narrandera.show-society.com.au, on their Facebook page or by calling the show secretariat on 6959 2718.
